Upper Primary

In English this week, 2C went on a class holiday.

They felt the sand, dipped their toes in the sea and tried some lovely ice cream.

The pupils then wrote postcards describing their lovely holiday using the adjectives they thought of.

Lower Primary

1R said good luck and goodbye to Mrs Crossley this week as she goes off on maternity leave. The children enjoyed playing games, such as 'place the baby on the bump', guess the size of the bump, and a race to make nappies on each other using toilet roll.

They also guessed what name Mrs Crossley might choose for her baby and enjoyed some party food. The children and staff will all miss Mrs Crossley but they can't wait to see photographs of her baby when they are born. Good luck Mrs Crossley!
